

BENSALEM RALLIES TO WIN TRACK MEET FROM JENKINTOWN

Owls Come From Far Behind To Nose Out Drakes By Score of 34 to 28

AN EXCITING CONTEST

Meet Was Shifted to Bensalem Because of Track Repairs At Jenkintown

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Apr. 21.—In a very interesting and exciting track meet held here yesterday afternoon with coach Bill Dougherty's Jenkintown Drakes furnishing the Bensalem Owls with the opposition, the Owls rallied to come from far behind to nose out the Drakes in the late stages of the meet. The final score was 34-28.

Jenkintown captured first places in the first three events, but Bensalem equaled them by taking the final three then topped off the late spurt by also winning the mile relay race. The boys of coach Dougherty swept the high jump event to score 9 to 0 in that, but the Owls came back to snare all three places in the broad jump after they had taken a one-three in the 220 run. This pulled the Owls ahead of the visitors by a single point, 23-22. Bensalem trailed 19-8 before those events. Then when the Owls also scored a 6-3 win in the half mile run they definitely sewed up the meet. Following that, Bensalem led, 29-25; and the best Jenkintown could do by taking the mile run was to shave the lead by two points which would still be two points short of the Owl's total. However, this was not the case and the Blue and Gray trackmen copped the meet by a six point lead.

Gorm Getchell, big Jenkintown ace, scored two first places for his team in taking the high jump with a leap of 5.3; and following up with a push of the 12 lb. shot of 35 feet, 5 inches to snare that event. Incidentally, all three of Jenkintown's entrants did 5.3 in the high jump and not wishing to go any further with the event, it was called off at that point.

Jack Scarborough, although he didn't take any firsts, placed in no less than three events, including two seconds. He was runner up in the shot put, 100 yard dash, and finished third in the 220. Jimmy Lieberman was the only other Owl to place in 3 events. He won the 220 run, placed third in the hundred, and finished in a tie for third with his teammate, Norman Tettemer, in the broad jump. The latter also took the half mile run in 2:39.7. Lieberman finished up ahead of the field in the 220 in 26.2 seconds.

The only other Owl winner was Harry Baker, who took the broad jump with a leap of an even 20 feet, while the other Jenkintown first place was captured by Alex Berret, who won the century dash in 11.3. Merle Eschen-shade and Jim Gleason were the two who tied Getchell for the high jump honors. Berret was the only other visitor, except Getchell, to win two places. Beside taking the 100 run, he placed second to Lieberman in the 220.

In the relay race, Bob Scarborough for Bensalem and Carl Schaefer for Jenkintown were the lead-off men. Scarborough shaded by about a foot as the Sophomore runners took the baton. Joe Cahill for the Owls, and Harry Wambold for Jenkintown. Wambold speeded past Cahill down the home stretch to hand the "baton" over to the third man about a yard ahead of Cahill. LeRoy Swon for the Blue and Gray and Ken Creed for the Red and Blue took over at this point, and Swon, running a fine race, regained the lead to give it to the anchor man with a two yard advantage. Norman Tettemer, Bensalem anchor increased this lead about a yard to finish ahead of Andy Wolford of Jenkintown by three full yards. The time was 4 minutes, 17 1/2 seconds.

Jenkintown's Junior High relay team beat Bensalem in a half-mile run which did not count in the final scoring. Jenkintown's time was 2:33.

This meet, originally scheduled for Jenkintown, was shifted to the Owl track this week due to repairs being made on Jenkintown's track.

Summary of events:

1. 100 yard dash: 1. Berret, Jenkintown; 2. J. Scarborough, Bensalem; 3. Lieberman, Jenkintown. Time: 11.3 seconds.
2. High Jump: All three Jenkintown entrants tied at 5.3, at which point the event was called off. Getchell, Eschen-shade and Gleason were the three Drake entrants. That event was called off.
3. Shot-put: 1. Getchell, Jenkintown; 2. J. Scarborough, Bensalem; 3. Berret, Bensalem. Distance: 35.5.
4. 220 run: 1. Lieberman, Bensalem; 2. Berret, Jenkintown; 3. J. Scarborough, Bensalem. Time: 26.2 seconds.
5. Broad Jump: 1. Baker, Bensalem; 2. Lieberman, Bensalem; 3. Tettemer and Lieberman, Bensalem, tied for third. Distance: 20 feet.
6. 880 or half mile run: 1. Tettemer, Bensalem; 2. Snyder, Jenkintown; 3. McGovern, Bensalem. Time: 2:39.7.
7. Mile Relay Race: 1. Bensalem (B. Scarborough, Cahill, Swon, Tettemer); 2. Jenkintown. Time: 4:17.5.

NO MEETING LIKELY BETWEEN POPE, HITLER

Holy Father's Present Plan To Be at Summer Palace Dims Chances of Meeting

COULD TAKE PLACE

(This is the fourth and last of a series dealing with Hitler's forthcoming visit to Rome.)

By Frank Gervasi
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1938)

ROME, Apr. 21.—(INS)—In all of the elaborate, carefully planned and intricately stage-managed preparations to accord Adolf Hitler a royal welcome when he comes to Rome early next month, there has been one important omission.

No time nor place has yet been accorded in the official program for a visit to the Vatican, and judging from all authoritative indications in Italian official circles and from the indifference in Church quarters, there may be no meeting between Der Fuehrer and His Holiness the Pope.

When Pope Pius received the decoded telegram informing him of the capitulation of the last remnant of the old Holy Roman Empire to the Nazis, he fell to his knees. Tears streamed down his cheeks. He was seriously ill for three days, recovered. International News Service is able to reveal, only after the skillful ministrations of Dr. Amintore Milani, his private physician, who is in constant attendance.

Arrest of leading Catholic clergymen in Austria, the demoralization of the Catholic press, the suppression of Catholic Action, have been added nails to the coffin wherein apparently rest all hopes of restoring relations between Berlin and the Vatican to normalcy.

The Italian Government takes the view that whatever Hitler does regarding the Vatican is his own business. An official source told International News Service that Hitler will have ample time to pay a protocol call, as demanded by strict diplomatic etiquette, on Pope Pius if he wishes.

All indications are however that, not only does Hitler show no anxiety to call upon His Holiness as Der Fuehrer should do as chief of a State which technically is still in good diplomatic rapport with the Holy See, but that the Holy Father may foil any possible last-minute change of heart on the part of Hitler.

Although ill and virtually at death's door Pope Pius is scheduled to leave the Vatican and proceed to his summer palace at Castelgandolfo, there to remain in seclusion at least until Hitler leaves Italy.

Only a sudden relapse in health will prevent Pope Pius from carrying out this plan. It was learned on unimpeachable authority.

If the unexpected does occur, and Hitler decides at the last minute to live up to the German-Vatican Concordat and visit the Pope, Pius' presence at Castelgandolfo will oblige the Nazi chieftain to go there.

Such an act by Hitler would serve in the eyes of the Catholic world as a complete capitulation of the Nazis to the Church's demands for freedom of worship in Germany, for re-establishment of Catholic schools and freedom of the Catholic press.

The fact that the Pope, however, is not in his official seal should he receive a visit from Hitler, would serve to lessen the official character of the visit and could be interpreted by the Nazis as an unofficial action. This is admitted in high Vatican quarters.

The Berlin-Vatican friction and possible developments during Hitler's sojourn in Rome, however, offer one of the most interesting angles to Der Fuehrer's forthcoming visit with II Duce, who made a special peace with the Church in the Lateran Treaties, standing by as a helpless and perhaps embarrassed bystander.

TO HAVE SPEAKER

EDGELEY, Apr. 21.—The East Bristol Township Parent-Teacher Association will hold its April meeting tonight in the school house at eight o'clock. All parents interested are invited to attend, as arrangements for the yearly picnic at Penn Valley Park will be made.

WINNING WITH JAMES

(Oil City Derrick, April 16, 1938)

"Win with Pinchot? Win What?" This is the title of a recent editorial in the Philadelphia Inquirer. That paper answers both queries. But why not win with James and win something?

Arthur H. James is no political neophyte. He is one of the best lawyers in the state, and admittedly one of its best jurists. His native county of Luzerne twice elected him district attorney. The state of Pennsylvania elected him first its lieutenant governor and afterward a judge of its Superior court.

Judge James is not one of those parlor pinks born with silver spoons in their mouths. He is the son of a miner. He himself was a breaker boy and mule driver in the coal mines. He knows the value of a dollar. He knows what it takes to earn it. When he studied law he learned all about the constitution of the United States and that of Pennsylvania. His judicial opinions are models of legal learning.

We are quite sure that when James becomes governor he will not decree that every applicant for a state position must file with his application a resignation with the date blank compelling him to support the governor and his policies on pain of dismissal.

We are also quite sure that when James becomes governor there will be no feminine pickets around his office dressed up in red skirts and giving orders to members of the legislature when the governor is not about.

James is able, honest and straightforward. There is nothing of the humbug about him. Republicans will vote for him without cussing him under their breath.

Win with James and redeem the state.

DOYLESTOWN COUNCIL DEMANDS PAYMENTS

Those Taking Advantage of WPA Funds Must Pay in Advance for Materials

AMOUNT OWING IS $1800

DOYLESTOWN, Apr. 21.—Borough council has ruled that property owners desiring to take advantage of getting new curb and gutter through the assistance of WPA funds, must pay in advance or buy the material direct, in the future.

Action was taken after Burgess Dr. John J. Sweeney appeared before Council and declared that he "saw no reason why the borough should hold the bag any longer." Records show that at the present time there are unpaid curb and gutter bills amounting to $1800, owed by people who took advantage of a privilege and then abused it by failing to pay up.

"It's the same old story," Burgess Sweeney declared. "People go away with delinquent water rents in the same manner, but when drastic action was taken, what happened? They paid up, and that is what we are going to compel property owners to do in the future when they want curb and gutter."

During the past four weeks alone, a total of $3592.25 in delinquent water rents have been paid, bringing the total delinquent collection close to $5000 in less than two months.

The Doylestown Chamber of Commerce thought so much of action taken by Council in collecting water rents, that a letter of commendation was written to Council and read last night.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

Not Worth The Price

Washington, April 20. The present precarious status of the tax bill, which, despite the conceded need, may mean there will be no tax revision at all, is as revealing of the great defect in Mr. Roosevelt's character as anything could be. No matter how plainly a plan or a policy has failed, he is unable to bring himself to the point of publicly admitting a mistake.

THIS, of course, is weakness, not strength. It is more than that. When pride of that sort, marking the occupant of the White House, is linked with an ardent disposition to act without sufficient thought or sound advice, the national interests suffer, and the people gener-

Bowers Goes To Chair May 9

Harrisburg, Apr. 21.—Roy Lockard and Wendell Forrest Bowers, 19, involved in two widely separated murder cases that shocked the state, were denied escape from the electric chair in decisions announced by the State Pardon Board today.

Lockard, convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to death for killing three-year-old "Sonny" Karmendi, son of his paramour, must die on May 2nd.

Bowers, who pleaded guilty to the slaying of Mrs. Wilma V. Carpenter, only Montgomery County widow, in her Camp Hill home, is to go to the electric chair on May 9th. Last minute reprieves from Governor Earle in the cases are unlikely in view of the Board's action.

Predict Bill Will Pass

Washington, April 21.—While "little navy" Senators continued to attack the $1,556,546,000 naval expansion bill in the Senate today, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, leader of the measure's supporters, predicted it will pass without substantial change.

Senator Nye of North Dakota, "admiral" of the opposition bloc, demanded the government build all of its warships, produce all of its naval armaments, guns and powders.

But the Walsh forces, embracing Democrats and Republicans, have decided to make few speeches. They are satisfied they have sufficient votes to pass the bill.

Consider R. R. Rehabilitation

Washington, April 21.—Railroad rehabilitation, one of the key factors in the administration's broad recovery program, occupied the attention of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee today.

1. Federal loans of $300,000,000 to the carriers.
2. A twelve-months waiver enabling the RFC to lend funds to railroads without the sanction of the I. C. C.
3. Creation of transportation authority to rule over consolidations.
4. Creation of a three-man court which would devote its entire time to railway reorganization proposals.

HULMEVILLE P. T. A. HEARS OF TRENDS IN TEACHING

Charles Boehm, Ass't County Superintendent, Answers Timely Questions

LANDSCAPING PLANNED

HULMEVILLE, Apr. 21.—"The school today that best suits the community is the school that suits itself to the needs of the community."

Thus spoke Charles Boehm, Morrisville, assistant superintendent of Bucks County Schools, as he addressed 30 members of the Hulmeville-Middletown Parent-Teacher Association, gathered in the school house last evening.

The present trend in methods of teaching, and also in subject material was given lengthy consideration by Mr. Boehm, and his address was divided into four questions, which he ably answered. These were: What is the trend in connection with the need in the future, or what do the parents and teachers face? How may the parent assist the child so that when the child enters first grade it will get along better? Where are we going in reading? and What is ahead of us in curriculum?

"We learn depending upon our interest, and whether we follow out that interest by actually doing something," stated the assistant superintendent, who illustrated the psychology of securing protection for school property by first securing interest of the boys and girls. "Get their interest in improvements, and let them help. A boy and girl will not destroy trees and shrubbery which they helped to plant. I have seen instances where they fought to protect such."

After writing the word "experience" on the black-board, the one addressing the parents informed that "The practicing of what we learn is experience. The children can't learn by means of text-books and pictures alone. They must have things in their hands, or pay visits to places they study about. The text-book is but a short-cut to experience. . . . Nearby, we have some of the richest treasures of the world. In Philadelphia alone we have an aquarium second to none; there is the planetarium, the zoo, museums that are of the highest type, and the great Franklin Institute. These are of great interest to children; and parents, you will find that if you take your small children to the zoo it will afford them sufficient questions to keep you busy answering for weeks. They will learn more in that manner than by studying about animals through books for months. You will also note in regards to school work, that the things the children like best, they do best."

In speaking of the differences in subjects and in methods of teaching today, Mr. Boehm informed that "Today we are building up among the children knowledge as gained by experience as they find it in everyday life. One method by which the parent may contribute to experiences of the children is to let them tell you what they read or saw during the day, or let them read some of their lessons to you."

Other suggestions offered by which means the parents may greatly aid the children were:

IMMIGRATION PROBLEMS

A sudden rise in immigration, after some years of nominal figures, is ascribed by Representative Jenkins of Ohio to a relaxing of the "public charge" test, which the Government has been applying with some rigor. The Congressman feels that the new sentiment for providing asylum here for refugees from European oppression, coupled with any slackening of our immigration standards, can well be viewed with apprehension.

Candor compels the admission that the problem put to us by any considerable body of refugees would be awkward. Against the American tradition of offering a haven to the oppressed, which is linked inseparably with the nation's beginning and the shaping of its growth, is the consideration of our present economic state and our ability to assimilate new thousands.

Social workers are making themselves heard on practical aspects of any large influx, which might not occur to the laity. They say many a refugee has proved a difficult case, for two reasons: He considers any help given him here in the nature of something that is his due; and because he comes here out of necessity and through no genuine urge to make our way his way and America his country, he allies himself to movements which represent organized discontent.

It is felt that further refugees would largely settle in the cities, where their presence has not been to the best interests of those of their own people, already settled, whose compassion and active sympathy they have enlisted. Social workers' objections would seem to have a special validity.

AFTER FIVE YEARS

Relief Commissioner Frank E. Bulna of Cleveland has released figures indicating that almost one-third of that city's population is either employed on WPA projects or drawing direct relief from city or county—or trying to get into one category or the other.

The commissioner reports that about 60,000 family heads and single persons are working for WPA; that about 30,000 families and individuals are on direct relief; and that 10,000 persons are seeking either relief or WPA jobs. This makes a total of 100,000 "cases"; and Mr. Bulna estimates that each "case" represents three individual residents of Cleveland. He concludes, therefore, that 300,000 of Cleveland's 900,000-plus inhabitants are either being supported by public funds or are seeking such support.

This, Mr. Bulna says, sets a new record for Cleveland. He might have added—but did not—that Cleveland has reached its new high in unemployment after more than five years of light-hearted experiments by a President who made some high-sounding promises on a certain day in March, 1933.

It seems far away and long ago when a Paul Revere could get people out of bed with the cry, "The British are coming!"

The Senate finance committee considers dropping the oath from income tax returns. Naturally, as long as a taxpayer is swearing mad, why bother to get him down blankety-blank-on-white?

America shows some improvement. In the beginning, one man in three was a killer.

The Great Game of Politics

that's the kind Mr. Roosevelt is demanding on this tax bill.

—O—

THE FACTS speak for themselves. Two years ago the President forced through a then supine Congress the so-called undivided-profits tax, invented by Dr. Oliphant, the Treasury adviser. This tax not only failed to produce the revenue expected but it undermined the safety of the whole corporate structure and particularly endangered small business. Six months ago, when the depression became apparent, there was overwhelming testimony of its paralyzing effect. Today, aside from the President and a few political subordinates and yes-men, it is without a single defender. The desire for its repeal among men capable of understanding what it is, is very great. It is particularly so among the smaller business men. If it had not been stopped by White House pressure, Congress would have wiped the tax out at the close of its last session.

THIS year, with general agreement that more than any other single thing it prevents the recovery of business confidence, the House, while greatly reducing the tax, at the insistence of the President, retained its "principle." In the Senate, despite the Presidential attitude, the repeal went through without a roll call. Without White House influence, the bill, now in conference committee, unquestionably would come out with the main features of the Senate measure intact—that is, repeal of the surplus tax and modification of the capital-gains tax. But Mr. Roosevelt, contrary to precedent, has chosen to thrust himself into the conference committee and in a letter to a member urges the House conferees to hold out for the retention of the surplus tax and against capital-gains modification. The arguments he advances are the old arguments; the reasons he gives have been shown unsound; and the points made for repeal and modification are completely ignored.

THE OUTCOME of the present deadlock which he has thus brought about is pretty vital. Three things can happen. First, the House conferees, subject to pressure, may "stand by the President," and if the Senate members refuse to yield, then there will be no bill and the present law, with its glaring faults and inconsistencies, will remain in force. Second, the House conferees may yield, despite the President, or the House as a whole may be given a vote on the bill and agree with the Senate. In that case, the President's tax policies would be repudiated by both branches of Congress and his orders completely disregarded. In that event, business, which has been clamoring for repeal of these taxes, unquestionably would be greatly encouraged.

OR, third, the House conferees and the President may prevail, the surplus tax be retained and capital-gains tax stay unmodified. In that event the discouragement of business would be inevitable. Business men generally would feel that hope from either Congress or the President was not well based. Not many will dispute these facts, and it really is extraordinary that the one concrete action upon which there is such unanimity of feeling as essential to a restoration of business confidence and security should be barred by Mr. Roosevelt in order to save his pride. The great question is whether the people as a whole will reach the conclusion that the price of saving the President's pride is too high to pay and reach it in time to save themselves on awful lot of trouble.

ON SCREENS IN BRISTOL

BRISTOL

"The world's most inhuman racket"—the smuggling of aliens into the United States—provides the plot for "Daughter of Shanghai," the action romance opening today at the Bristol Theatre.

Brought into being by the tightening of our immigration laws and the straitened conditions of foreign countries which are causing many to try to flee them, this newest and flourishing branch of the underworld's big business has been taken over by scoundrels of shady character who were rendered jobless by Repeal.

While no accurate estimate can be made of the number of persons smuggled into the country, a recent report of the Federal Relief Administration revealed that four per cent of the total of persons on the relief rolls have entered the country illegally—many of them on the vessels of "fresh" smugglers.

"Daughter of Shanghai" is a frank portrayal of the racket as it exists in San Francisco and other "transfer points" and "depots." In this story, which was directed by Robert Florey, Anna May Wong, daughter of a wealthy merchant who was killed when he refused to have any part in the racket, undertakes to get the goods on the band. She is assisted by Philip Ahn, a brilliant young Chinese actor who plays the role of a Federal agent.

GRAND

"A Slight Case of Murder," a farce film that frankly and unreservedly makes fun of the whole business of gangsterism and racketeering, is scheduled as the feature attraction at the Grand Theatre Thursday and Friday.

It is a Warner Bros. production with Edward G. Robinson as star. But he's a different Edward G. Robinson. He's no menacing, gun-toting, sinister underworld character this time. He's a fellow who was a beer-baron in dry days and now, since Repeal, has been trying to get along as a legitimate brewer. But he's a dry at heart; he's never tasted his own brew.

His mob, which used to run rum, hi-jack rivals' loads and force Eddie's beer upon the speakeasy proprietors, are now salesmen without guns, forced to dress nicely and have daily shaves and baths. In addition to all of this, his beer is so bad that nobody wants to drink it. The boys can't sell it, but nobody dares to tell the Big Boss why!

QUAKERTOWN GIRL PITCHES SHUT-OUT GAME

Pitching a shutout game, Tuesday, Gladys Crossman, captain of Quakertown High girls' baseball team, is the idol of her teammates today. Taking her position on the mound in a game between Quakertown and Springfield High of Pleasantville Valley, Gladys fanned 16 players and allowed only three hits, winning the game 5 to 0. It was the opening game between the two teams in the Bux-Mont Girls' Baseball League.

Gladys struck out the side in the second inning. Last year she played at shortstop. Her sister, Dorothy, was one of the best girl pitchers in the Quakertown area.

Springfield girls, most of whom live on farms, are big and strong and should be heavy hitters. They are playing in the league for the first time.

They collected two of their three hits in the first inning. Arlene Miller put up stubborn resistance to the persistently swift pitching of Gladys but the best she could get was a few fouls. She was struck out on her second trip to bat and retired on a fly on her third trip.

Gladys Crossman fields as well as she pitches. Gladys accounted for one of Quakertown's three runs during a batting spree in the fifth when it bunched five hits for three runs.

At the end of the third frame, the sides were both blanked. Kathryn Diehl, Quakertown's track star, started the scoring with a run, getting to third on an overthrow at second and stealing home. Kay is holder of the American record in the 75-yard dash.

Margie MacLean, right field; Ruth Kriger, short stop, and Marjorie Nicholas, second base, scored the winners' other runs.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE TO HOLD IMPORTANT SESSION

There will be an important meeting of the Bristol Twilight League tonight in the St. Ann's club-house at eight o'clock. All managers and directors of the league teams and also any team wishing to join the circuit are requested to be present. Several of the league teams are still shaky as to whether they will enter the loop this season, and this will be settled tonight.

The opening evening will see the Superior Zinc Corporation nine clashing with the St. Ann's A. A. team on the St. Ann's diamond. Tuesday night, Rohm & Haas meets the Hibernians on Leedom's field, and Thursday night the Grundy nine plays the Odd Fellows at Edgely.

Langhorne Track Team Is Winner

For Langhorne with a push of 36 feet, 3 inches, but Jim Castro and Les Appenzeller took second and third places to give the Orange and Black 4 points in that event. Langhorne led at the close of the event, however, by a score of 39-6, and therefore had little to fear over in the box score.

Stafford Caldwell and Bob Corrigan were the heroes in Langhorne's victory, as each took first places in both events they entered. Caldwell opened the meet with a dashing victory in the century run with a time of 10.7. Later on, he came home in front of his teammate, Chuck Klein, again to win the 220 run with a time of 24.9. Incidentally, Klein tripped in rounding a curve in running the hundred and cut across the green a couple of steps in falling but was able to maintain his balance. However, he did not put on the steam he was capable of showing at the finish mark because of the accidental short cut and was contented with a second rather than to beat out Caldwell.

The second event, the broad jump, brought out a surprise ending. Langhorne swept this event, taking all three places, with Corrigan, Lou Bispham and Chuck Klein finishing up in that order. But the first two entered this event for the first time in a competitive meet, and Corrigan came out not only the victor but nearly clipped the school record in hurdling a distance of 20 feet, 3 and one-quarter inches. The record held here is 20 feet, 3 and one-half inches which Ted Whettlan is the proud possessor of and he made the mark last year. Bispham, who finished second, was an alternate and wasn't even scheduled to enter the event. However, Bob Hastings had a pulled tendon in his leg and did not wish to compete, so Coach Bromberg entered Bispham and was given a delightful surprise at his result's work.

Corrigan came home in front of the field in the half mile run with a time of 2 minutes, 15 and 3/10 seconds to make it three in a row for Langhorne. Bob Hauser, with a heave of 36 feet, 3 inches, captured the shotput, and Caldwell came back strong to win his second victory by kicking up his heels in the 220 with the fast time of 24.9 seconds. The final individual event was the high jump, which Augie Everett had no trouble in winning, going over the bar at 5.2 with his entire track paraphernalia still on. He did not wish to go any higher after his nearest competitor, Bill McCahan, had dropped out on that mark. This completed the run of Fallington, who failed to win a single first place in the entire meet.

To further humiliate the Falcons, Langhorne had no difficulty in taking the mile relay to wind up the day's work. The team composed of Bob Corrigan, Chuck Klein, Lou Bispham, and Jack Harding, finished up in the fast time of 3.56 despite the fact that they lost two of the four varsity relay men due to injuries. Bob Hastings was out with a pulled tendon and Bill Newbold is nursing a broken ankle received when he fell down the steps. A third man, which made up the relay team last year, Ted Whettlan, is now at B. M. I., in New Jersey, where he went this Spring.

Summary of events:

1. 100 yard dash: 1. Caldwell, Langhorne; 2. Klein, Langhorne; 3. Schaffer, Fallington. Time: 19.7 seconds.
2. Broad Jump: 1. Corrigan, Langhorne; 2. Bispham, Langhorne; 3. Klein, Langhorne. Distance: 36.3 feet.
3. 880 or half mile run: 1. Corrigan, Langhorne; 2. Harding, Langhorne; 3. Castro, Fallington. Time: 2:15.3 seconds.
4. Shot-Put: 1. Hauser, Langhorne; 2. Castro, Fallington; 3. L. Appenzeller, Fallington. Distance: 36 feet, 3 inches.
5. 220 run: 1. Caldwell, Langhorne; 2. Klein, Langhorne; 3. Turner, Fallington. Time: 24.9 seconds.
6. High Jump: 1. Everett, Langhorne.

12. McCahan, Langhorne; 2. Turner, Fallington. Height: 5 feet, 2 inches.
7. Mile Relay Race: 1. Langhorne (Corrigan, Klein, Bispham, and Harding); 2. Fallington. Time: 3 minutes, 56 seconds.
Final score: Langhorne, 59; Fallington, 9.

ST. ANN'S PREPARES TO OPEN BOXING SEASON

With the outdoor amateur boxing season less than a month away, the St. Ann's Athletic Association is now making preparations for the opening show. The match-maker for the local organization this season will be John Straffe, who also will act in the capacity of trainer for the St. Ann's fighters.

Straffe is now issuing the first call for youths of this vicinity who wish to be instructed in amateur boxing. Applicants may get in touch with the St. Ann's trainer at the St. Ann's club-house.

Fighters who wish to fight under the colors of any organization may do so and will also be granted the privilege of using the St. Ann's training quarters.

It is the intention of Match-maker Straffe to hold the first bout on May 23, weather permitting. If this date is unsuitable, the first outdoor show will be scheduled for Memorial Day.

Straffe has already begun to work in matching his show and on his opening cards expects to have the leading amateurs of Philadelphia and vicinity. Al Paris, former St. Ann's fighter, is now directing the destinies of the Hoime A. A. boxing team. Paris will still don the mitts and expects to be on the opening card.

CHEWACKI HOLDS LEAGUE TO MAT DRAW

TRENTON, N. J., April 21.—Chief Chewacki, of the Oklahoma Chewackis, traded grunts with Jack League, of Texas, who is not of the Texas League, however, in the main event at the Trenton Arena last night, with the net result 90 minutes of wrestling ended in a draw.

League, who weighs a mere 226 pounds, pinned the slightly wackie Chewacki in the first fall with a series of body slams, augmented with a few sound rights to the jaw, after 51 minutes, 15 seconds of grappling. The Gypsy chief, nothing of a lightweight himself, weighing all of 242, retaliated by ramming League's shoulders to the mat in the second fall which lasted only 14 minutes. He caught League unawares on a rebound off the ropes and fell on him for the count.

The final round was limited to five minutes in order to keep the match within a 90-minute time limit. When the final gong sounded, Chewacki was on the mat, with League, the crowd's favorite, pouring on an armlock.

child in the present times were: "Let them have a garden, they will learn much about the growth from seeds and the care of plants; and have good picture books in the home, place them in a spot where the finest tots may have ready access to them; and remember that a picture book to be good need not be expensive."

In commenting upon worriment of some parents over the fact that children starting to school do not learn to read quickly and well, the county official reminded that "From the standpoint of the eyes a child should not do a great deal of concentrated reading before he is seven years of age."

Coming to a more important phase of the child's education, Mr. Boehm stated that it is more important that a child advance socially than in his studies alone. "We should be interested in whether our boys and girls like to be with other children, and whether other children like to play with them. For we find that the greatest problem child is the one who is always quietly alone. His social contact with other youngsters is far more important to his future happiness than the fact that he learn to spell."

More frequent conferences between individual parents and the teachers were advocated. Mr. Boehm was introduced to the gathering by the P. T. A. president, Mrs. Edwin M. Lathrop.

During the business meeting which preceded, Mrs. Albert Wunsch, secretary, gave an account of the Spring Assembly of the County P. T. A. held in South Langhorne.

The attendance banner was won by the first grade, Miss Long teacher.

KETCHIKAN, Alaska—(INS)—Most cities are bothered with meeting interest on outstanding obligations. Ketchikan probably is one of the few that collects interest instead of paying it. The city now has $49,500 surplus funds invested in postal savings bonds, school bonds and public utility bonds. In addition the city is a large holder of real estate.
